PREFACE

Public Affairs Information Service issues at this time its fifth annual volume.

Experimentation in different lines has been tried in the last few years as is always necessary in a new publication. The most obviously successful one during the past year has been the elimination of order work for cooperators. It formerly clogged the machinery of the publication to such an extent that the prompt listing of useful material was impossible. The keen user of the Bulletins has noticed, no doubt, that the material selected has been more varied and has appeared with greater promptness since the order service ceased.

The Advisory Committee and editor are convinced of greater possibilities for the Service and the Committee has approved a plan for the removal of the editorial staff to the Economics Division of the Public Library of New York City, where a greater field for research can be placed at the disposal of cooperators. This good fortune has come to the Service thru the untiring interest of Dr. C. C. Williamson, Chief of the Division and Chairman of the Advisory Committee. The details of the plan need not be outlined here, for, at the time of writing, cooperators are casting their votes on the proposed Articles of Agreement. As soon as they are duly approved, the Publication Committee will be in a position to put into effect the new editorial plans. A period for readjustment will be required before the desired improvement in the publication will manifest itself, but suffice it to say, that the field of the publication and the Economics Division are sufficiently similar to make such cooperation well worth while from an editorial point of vantage.

From a publication point of view, the Service has been ideally cared for during the past five years by the H. W. Wilson Company, and it will be the privilege of the Service to continue these relations. Many advantages have accrued to the Service from contact with the editorial experience of the various Wilson publications and Mr. Wilson has kindly consented to serve as a member of the Executive Committee, which is provided for in the Articles of Agreement. His interest in launching the publication in its present form and a constant willingness to confer with the Committee and the staff has been thoroughly appreciated.

During the absence of the editor from the City Miss Middleton has cared for the editorial revision of the Annual and with the conscientious assistance of other members of the staff has seen the publication thru the press.

Governors' messages, 1919

Illinois—Gov. Lowden recommends the adoption of a system of agricultural credit to encourage farmers to own their own farms.

Maine—Gov. Milliken recommends that the farm lands loan act passed by the last legislature should be made more liberal and should be called to the attention of returning soldiers who desire to establish themselves upon farms.

Montana—Gov. Stewart states that the farm loans law has worked admirably, but that some changes and amendments may be necessary in the light of experience.

North Dakota—Gov. Frazier recommends the establishment of a state bank or a rural credit bank.

South Dakota—Gov. Norbeck reports that South Dakota is the only state in the union having a rural credit law in successful operation.

Governors' messages, 1919

Colorado—Gov. Shoup urges provision for agricultural development and suggests that some of the things which will increase such development are good roads, equitable freight rates, home markets, elimination of excessive profits to middlemen and the fair inspection and grading of products.

Idaho—Gov. Davis recommends the creation of a unified department of agriculture to build up the whole field of agriculture and not one special branch, and to cooperate in every activity with the state agricultural college and state experiment station, as well as with the federal government.

Maine—Gov. Milliken states that the farmer should be protected as far as possible from the loss occasioned by preventable diseases of animals, plants and human beings; that wasteful methods of marketing should be eliminated; that market roads should be improved; that an effort to carry to rural localities electric light and power should be made.

Massachusetts—Gov. Coolidge recommends that means be provided for encouraging agricultural development.

Minnesota—Gov. Burnquist urges an investigation in order to improve farming conditions including the distribution of farm products, speculation, price control and unjustifiable profits; and recommends that legislation should be enacted which will enable farmers to cooperate. A new department of agriculture is also advocated.

New Hampshire—Gov. Bartlett recommends a broad policy toward the department of agriculture in its valuable work for the development of farming in the state.

New Mexico—Gov. Larrazolo recommends legislation making it a duty of the boards of county commissioners to cooperate with the county agricultural agents in the creation of a farmers' bureau, whose business it shall be to keep posted on the ruling market prices of farm products and on all matters of interest to farmers.

New York (state)—Gov. Smith states that agriculture in the state should be properly encouraged. He urges a study of the marketing system, better agricultural education, and general improvement of rural conditions.

Rhode Island—Gov. Beeckman recommends the establishment, at the state college, of courses in farm management and business organization so conducted as to make them available to actual farmers as well as to students of agriculture, and also recommends that a liberal appropriation be made therefor.

Vermont—Gov. Graham recommends that further aid be extended to agriculture and forestry and to the farm bureaus of counties.

Governors' messages, 1919

Colorado—Gov. Gunter emphasizes the importance of effective legislation for the regulation of child labor.

Minnesota—Gov. Burnquist asks that more stringent child labor laws be passed.

New York (state)—Gov. Smith recommends that no children should be allowed to work in any occupation injurious to health, and that the provision requiring physical examination of children should be extended to all employments in which they are engaged; that children should be surrounded with adequate protection as to hours and tasks which they may be permitted to undertake.

North Carolina—Gov. Bickett recommends a law that would prevent any child between the ages of eight and fourteen from being employed in any mill or factory during the school term.

South Carolina—Gov. Manning considers the raising of the age limit for child labor from fourteen years to sixteen years a step of the greatest importance.

California women's committee of council of state and national defense thru its children's year committee has delegated to permanent organizations various parts of the national program. The Juvenile protective association, San Francisco, has been assigned the subject of child labor and education. The following questions are being especially investigated: In what respect is the state child labor law defective; In what respect is the school attendance law defective; Have any efforts been made to secure exemptions, because of war conditions; How great is the need for special assistance to enable children to stay in school; How many prosecutions for violations of the child labor law were made in the community during the year and how many convictions were secured. Arkansas women will be allowed to vote, according to a ruling of the attorney, on the new constitution at a special election, December 14, 1918. Changes in the new constitution include the initiative and referendum, full and complete suffrage for women, state-wide prohibition, four-year single terms of office. It also provides for the election of a state commissioner of education, and fixes the boundary along the Mississippi river.

Association of manufacturers of war materials was organized in Cleveland, O., on Jan. 3, 1919, with a view toward asking Congress to enact legislation which will permit payment by the government of obligations arising from informal contracts entered into under the stress of war conditions. The conference adopted a resolution recommending the immediate passage of the Dent bill, with necessary amendments to meet the situation, asking Secretary Baker to take steps immediately to check the claims of subcontractors and urging immediate payment of such amounts as may clearly appear due. The association membership includes more than 200 war material manufacturers from all parts of the United States and Canada. H: M. Dineen, sec., Baltimore.

Governors' messages, 1919

Michigan—Gov. Sleeper recommends that the state penal institutions be made self-sustaining by the introduction of various forms of industries. He recommends that every prisoner employed should be paid a substantial wage, the money earned to be turned over to his family, if he has one, if not, to be placed to his credit and given him when discharged.

Ohio—Gov. Cox reports that approximately 283 convicts are at present unemployed and that 61 of these are incapacitated by disability. Industrial units have been established in the prison, the products of which go to the state and local subdivision of government.

Oregon—Gov. Withycombe does not favor the law which prevents the sale of prison made articles in competition with those manufactured by free labor.

Vermont—Gov. Graham recommends continuance of the use of convicts on state forest lands, farms and roads.

Governors' messages, 1919

Colorado—Gov. Shoup recommends the continuation of the state council of defense for the ensuing two years and that an appropriation be made for carrying on its work.

Delaware—Gov. Townsend recommends the continuation of the committees of the Council of defense that have to do with health, child welfare, legal advice to soldiers, and community centers.

Governors of Alabama, Arkansas, Colorado, Connecticut, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Minnesota, Missouri, Montana, Nevada, North Dakota, Oregon, South Carolina, South Dakota, and Washington review the activities of the state councils of defense during the war.

Idaho—Gov. Davis recommends that the state council of defense be made a permanent body, to be called into being at any time of need upon proclamation of the governor, and be subject to dissolution at his discretion.

Montana—Gov. Stewart states that needy farmers were provided with seed grain and that relief was brought to those who were deserving, thru the efforts of the state council of defense.

New Jersey—Gov. Edge wishes proper financial provision for continuing the state council of defense in order to assist in demobilization, etc.

New Mexico—Gov. Larrazolo asks that the state council of defense be continued to assist in finding employment for home-coming soldiers.

North Dakota—Gov. Frazier recommends the continuation of the council of defense until May 1, 1919.

Oklahoma—Gov. Robertson recommends legislation looking to the creation and jurisdiction of a council of defense to serve in times of emergency after the war.

Oregon—Gov. Withycombe thinks the state and county councils of defense should be kept intact until after conditions have resumed their normal state.

Pennsylvania—Gov. Sproul recommends the continuation in modified form of the Council of national defense and the Committee of public safety, to help in the solution of peace problems.

Utah—Gov. Bamberger recommends that the sum of $50,000 should be returned to a group of patriotic citizens who gave their personal notes in order that the work of the state council of defense need not be hindered. A loan of $75,000 was negotiated by the council thru these citizens and the state board of loan commissioners which provided $25,000.

Wyoming—Gov. Carey recommends an act giving the governor authority to organize a council of defense at any time that in his opinion it is necessary; such a law might obviate the necessity of calling a special session of the legislature at some future time.

- New Hampshire—Gov. Bartlett considers it the duty of the state to provide employment on public works and improvements for those who have been made dependent by the war, or to support without work those who are forced by the sudden transition of business from a war basis to a peace basis into want and distress thru idleness.

- New Hampshire—Gov. Bartlett recommends that every possible effort should be made to keep everybody employed during the reconstruction period.

Wisconsin—Gov. Phillip believes that one of the chief employment problems lies in caring for the women who took the place of men in the service and who are now without employment, and announces that the state stands ready to help these workers find places again.

Governors' messages, 1919

Maine—Gov. Milliken states that splendid progress is being made towards helping the fisherman and at the same time protecting the industry by impartial and rigid enforcement of the laws.

Michigan—Gov. Sleeper recommends amending the laws relating to the fishing industry so as to provide for the needs of Michigan before allowing fish to be shipped from the state.

Missouri—Gov. Gardner reports that the state fish commission recommends that an angler's license law be enacted, the law applying to residents and nonresidents.

Wyoming—Gov. Carey recommends the enactment of effective laws for the protection of game and fish.

State aid

Governors' messages, 1919

Michigan—Gov. Sleeper states that several hundred tractors were placed in the hands of Michigan farmers thru the efforts of the War preparedness board. The tractors were sold to the farmers at the same price paid by the state, plus the freight. Several hundreds of thousands of bushels of seed corn and seed wheat were also purchased from other states and distributed to the farmers thru the county war boards.

Governors' messages, 1919

- Iowa.—Gov. Harding recommends legislation requiring that English be the language of instruction in the schools and that no other language be taught below the high school grades. After that they may be permitted to study other languages, but English shall still be the language of instruction. Provision should also be made for the study of English by those who are beyond school age.
- Michigan.—Gov. Sleeper recommends legislation requiring all courses of instruction in every school in the state to be conducted exclusively in the English language up to and including the eighth grade.
- Missouri.—Gov. Gardner recommends a law requiring that instruction in the elementary branches be given in the English language only.
- Montana.—Gov. Stewart is personally opposed to the teaching of German in the public schools and particularly is he opposed to the use of German in teaching other subjects. He recommends legislation regulating the use of all foreign languages and governing the matter of teaching the same in schools and institutions. He further recommends that all foreign language publications be required to carry an English translation, if they are to be circulated among the people. He believes that church services in a foreign language should at least be translated into English.
- Wisconsin.—Gov. Phillip gives a review of the history of teaching of foreign language in the schools of the states and recommends that no foreign language be taught under high school grades. He also suggests that foreign language for religious services should not be opposed as long as it is not used for propaganda purposes.

Governors' messages, 1919

- Arkansas—Gov. Brough recommends that the Department of mines, manufacture and agriculture make a survey of the forest resources of the state.
- Illinois—Gov. Lowden recommends that many thousand acres of land which are unsuitable for anything but tree culture be exempted from taxation on condition that they be planted with trees, with the provision that when the trees are harvested a proper tax would be collected on the product. In this way much of such land would become permanent forests, a source of revenue to both the owners and the state.
- New Hampshire—Gov. Bartlett is fully alive to the value of forests but has no definite proposals to make as to the problems connected with the state forests.
- Pennsylvania—Gov. Brumbaugh states that the state forests are now in condition to require improvement cutting and that the work can absorb at least 5000 men in profitable industry and result in marketing, at a fair estimate, $1,900,000 worth of timber products. He recommends that this enterprise be undertaken and the proceeds conveyed into the permanent school fund.

Regulation

New Zealand government has authorized the Board of trade to take charge of the distribution of gasoline, benzine, motor spirits, etc., thru approved distributors who are regularly licensed. The Board of trade is authorized to fix the retail price at the main centers, and the wholesale price must be sufficiently low to allow of a reasonable profit on that basis. The quantity sold to any one consumer is also fixed at a certain quantity so as to regulate the consumption according to the stocks in hand. Ag 8 '18

Governors' messages, 1919

Maine—Gov. Milliken recommends the enactment of a law authorizing towns to combine into districts for the purpose of employing public health officers and providing that part of the salary of such officers be paid by the state.

Michigan—Gov. Sleeper recommends the establishment in every county in the state of a full-time health officer, working under the supervision of the state board of health.

Ohio—Gov. Cox recommends that certain cities should be compelled to employ a full-time health officer, and that certain townships and municipalities should be joined together into one health district. Suggestions have been made for the county plan of consolidation of towns into health districts and for the division of the state into from twelve to fifteen districts.

Wyoming—Gov. Carey recommends the appointment of a full-time health officer.

Arizona—Gov. Campbell recommends the creation of a road commission.

Idaho—Gov. Davis has asked the state highway department to submit a project plan of improvements for the next five or ten years, and the plan will be submitted to the legislature for approval and subsequently to the people at the next general election.

Michigan—Gov. Sleeper recommends the creation of a highway commission of three men to be appointed for terms of six, four and two years, this commission to have entire charge of general road building operations.

Montana—Gov. Stewart directs the attention of the legislature particularly to the highway commission because of the fact that as time goes on the necessity for an adequate highway department will be more and more apparent.

New Hampshire—Gov. Bartlett states that the general power to direct, supervise and outline general policies of the highway department should be placed in the hands of the governor and council.

South Carolina—Gov. Manning reports that the highway commission has not been able to accomplish what was desired, on account of inadequacies of the law under which it operates.

Governors' messages, 1919

Iowa—Gov. Harding recommends encouraging people in owning their own homes and suggests that the principle to be applied by the state to settling soldiers on farm lands be applied to civilians to settling them on town lots.

Kansas—Gov. Allen urges legislation for the creation of credits to be used for the increase of home-owning.

Massachusetts—Gov. Coolidge says inducements should be made to encourage home building, thru the providing of capital and loans at low rate of interest and some exemption from taxation.

Oklahoma—Gov. Robertson recommends amending the home ownership law in order to make loans to the man without funds who desires to establish his own home. He recommends that the loans be limited to $2500.

South Dakota—Gov. Norbeck thinks that an exemption from taxation of homes up to the value of $2000 would encourage home builders.

American federation of labor and five national housing and civic associations have gone on record as favoring the establishment of a federal bureau for industrial housing, town planning and community planning in the broad sense of dealing with the entire physical environment of the inhabitants. The organizations favoring such a bureau are the American institute of architects, American civic association, National housing association, National association of real estate exchanges and the National municipal league. A committee was appointed by the representatives of these associations meeting in Philadelphia, Jan. 7, 1919 to secure the cooperation of others in all parts of the country in drafting a bill to create such a bureau, either in the Department of labor or the Department of the interior. The purpose of the bureau would be research, experimentation, and the dissemination of information, acting as a central agency for the service of state authorities and local committees.

Governors' messages, 1919

- Colorado—Gov. Gunter reviews the Americanization work accomplished by a committee headed by the president of the state university and financed by the council of defense.
- Connecticut—Gov. Holcomb favors the establishment of a department of Americanization.
- Delaware—Gov. Townsend recommends a compulsory law providing that all residents of Delaware who enjoy the privileges and protection of the state, shall learn the English language.
- Idaho—Gov. Davis urges the education of immigrants in the English language and the principles of American citizenship.

Maine—Gov. Milliken recommends the further expansion of the system of evening and part-time schools for adults of foreign birth.

Massachusetts—Gov. Coolidge urges that provision be made to assist in teaching all up to middle age to speak, read and write our language.

Michigan—Gov. Sleeper would encourage the establishment of schools in every industrial center where the immigrant may learn our language and be taught the principals of good citizenship and Americanism.

Minnesota—Gov. Burnquist urges that the education of the foreign born be extended. No one should have a right to make a living in the country or exercise the electoral franchise, unless he is willing to learn its language.

Missouri—Gov. Gardner wishes the elimination of all illiteracy and the Americanization of the foreign population.

Nebraska—Gov. McKelvie thinks the schools should be made a medium through which Americanism should be taught and that all instruction should be conducted in the English language.

New Hampshire—Gov. Bartlett recommends the instruction of immigrants in the English language as an Americanization measure and the necessary appropriation of possibly $200,000 to $300,000 a year for the work thru the medium of the evening schools.

New Jersey—Gov. Edge considers the public schools a potent factor in the Americanization of the immigrant.

Ohio—Gov. Cox recommends renewed activity in the matter of promoting the Americanization of the immigrant.

Pennsylvania—Gov. Sproul believes that the Department of labor and industry should give more attention to the work of Americanization.

Rhode Island—Gov. Beecman recommends that courses in Americanization be made part of the public instruction and that encouragement and assistance be given to patriotic societies and associations willing to undertake the important work of educating the immigrant.

South Dakota—Gov. Norbeck urges the Americanization of the population of the state and the compulsory teaching of the English language.

Wisconsin—Gov. Phillip states that he is in full accord with the teaching of English to immigrants thru the night schools and the university extension courses and recommends that other facilities for Americanization purposes be created, if necessary.

Legislation, Proposed

Australia—Income tax bill makes an increase of thirty per cent in existing income tax, with a corresponding alteration in regard to companies. Measure also formally repeals what is known as the bachelor tax. (Passed Representatives '18)

New South Wales—Income tax management amendment bill establishes a system whereby state income tax returns shall be furnished at the same time as the commonwealth returns. Encourages Starr Bowkett societies by exempting them from taxation, allows certain deductions to be made at present permitted by the commonwealth but not recognised by the state, and vests the whole management and control of the taxation department in one commissioner instead of three. Increases the penalty on taxpayers guilty of perjury from £100 to £500. (Read 3d time O 24 '18)

Decisions

New York state income tax law was declared unconstitutional by the federal district court as it applied to non-residents because of the discrimination non-residents would be subjected to under its operations. Ag '19

Governors' messages, 1919

Kansas—Gov. Allen thinks the state would be benefited by a low income tax law with low exemption.

Missouri—Gov. Gardner states that the state income tax law has been declared constitutional. He recommends the repeal of the section which permits an offset to the income tax of the amount of state taxes paid on real and personal property.

New Jersey—Gov. Edge thinks that the present legislation should be corrected if it is discovered that the gross receipts tax act upon public utility companies should operate to the disadvantage of any municipalities thru loss of revenue.

North Dakota—Gov. Frazier recommends that an income tax be provided for.

Governors' messages, 1919

California—Gov. Stephens thinks labor is entitled to receive a larger share of the profits of industry than heretofore; that all new laws should be based upon principles of even and exact justice.

Wyoming—Gov. Carey recommends extending the power of the commissioner of labor and statistics and giving him authority to provide better protection for labor. He also recommends the repeal of that section of the law providing that no person may be appointed as commissioner of labor and statistics who has been an officer of any labor organization at any time during the period of six months prior to this appointment.

Associations

New York association for the advancement of medical education and medical research has been organized in New York city. The main objects of the association are to improve and amplify the methods of graduate and under-graduate teaching; to perfect plans for utilizing the vast clinical material of the city for teaching purposes and to make use of teaching talent now unemployed; to bring about a working affiliation of the medical schools, hospitals and laboratories, as well as the public health facilities of the city for teaching purposes, to the end that the best interests of medical education may be conserved; to initiate the establishment of a medical education foundation in New York whereby funds may be secured to meet the financial requirements of all forms of medical education and investigation. It is hoped to make New York a great medical center, such as Berlin and Vienna were before the war. Dr Wendell Phillips is president of the new association, and Dr Haven Emerson, formerly city health commissioner, is secretary. J1 '19

Governors' messages, 1919

Indiana—Gov. Goodrich recommends that the mining laws be so amended as to afford better protection to both employer and employee.

Kansas—Gov. Allen urges that provision be made for the inspection of the lead and zinc mines of the state for the proper safeguarding of these mines.

New Mexico—Gov. Larrazolo recommends that a law be enacted to provide for the safe management and operation of metal mines.

Pennsylvania—Gov. Brumbaugh recommends that the owners of coal mines and the owners of surface property be called into conference and led to agree on some permanent policy of safety for the miners that will be just to all parties concerned.

West Virginia—Gov. Cornwell recommends amending the statute governing the department of mines, so as to create an examining board to examine all applicants for appointment as district mine inspectors and that successful applicants be placed in a classified list in order that their positions may be removed entirely from political consideration.

Governors' messages, 1919

- Alabama—Gov. Henderson recommends that the state law regarding the number of units of the national guard should be made to agree with the federal law.

- Arkansas—Gov. Brough thinks a national guard of 7200 men should be maintained.

- Delaware—Gov. Townsend recommends that no further change be made in the national guard until Congress has acted upon the matter.

- Idaho—Gov. Davis recommends that rather large discretion should be left to the governor to organize or reorganize the state militia at any time to meet the requirements of the changing federal law and regulation.

- Massachusetts—Gov. Coolidge recommends that provision be made for maintaining such part of the present state guard as the military council may approve, for a period not to exceed one year after the declaration of peace.

- Nebraska—Gov. McKelvie thinks that if the state militia is reconstructed it should only be used against a military foe.

- New Jersey—Gov. Edge thinks the matter of the national guard is wholly contingent on the military policy adopted by the federal government.

- New York (state)—Gov. Smith states that in a later message he will present to the legislature the problems attendant upon the re-instatement of the former members of the national guard in the state militia.

- Ohio—Gov. Cox states that no further legislation is needed to form a state military force, as the governor already has the power to reestablish the national guard, and that in all probability the national guardsmen in the service of the nation will be willing to return to the service of the state.

- Oregon—Gov. Withycombe deems it advisable to organize the national guard, so that this establishment may be perfected when the treaty of peace is signed.

- Pennsylvania—Gov. Brumbaugh recommends the expansion of the state militia, unless Congress decrees otherwise. He believes it important to have at all times in the state an efficient group of trained men to maintain peace and order.

- Pennsylvania—Gov. Sproul recommends merging the militia with the state national guard as soon as possible.

- South Carolina—Gov. Manning recommends that the national guard be retained as necessary to maintain order, suppress riots, invasion or insurrection within the state.

- West Virginia—Gov. Cornwell believes it impractical to begin a revival of national guard organizations, and states that the militia statute is entirely out of date. He recommends that the special police deputy sheriff law be re-enacted, with certain modifications.

Governors' messages, 1919

Colorado—Gov. Gunter urges careful consideration of all bills which involve recognition of extra-territorial servitudes upon our territory and natural resources.

Colorado—Gov. Shoup recommends the creation of a board to be composed of the immigration commissioner, the register of the state land board, the state engineer and the state geologist to make a full survey of the undeveloped resources of the state, in order that such information may be given to the federal government to aid it in providing homes and occupations for returning soldiers; recommends a liberal appropriation for the work.

Indiana—Gov. Goodrich recommends that the office of state geologist be abolished and that a conservation commission be created under the management of trained men not subject to the changing fortunes of political parties.

New York (state)—Gov. Smith recommends the development of the vast natural resources of the state.

Ohio—Gov. Cox recommends the initiation of a constructive policy for the conservation of the natural resources of the state, particularly its unused water power.

Oklahoma—Gov. Robertson recommends legislation to stimulate the development of the natural resources of the state.

- California—Gov. Stephens urges that the direct primary law should be strengthened.
Michigan—Gov. Sleeper recommends that no man running for public office should be permitted to occupy a place on more than one ticket in the primaries.

- Minnesota—Gov. Burnquist urges that the primary law be amended in order to prevent minority nominations and enable the members of political parties to adopt platforms.
Montana—Gov. Stewart recommends amending the primary law in order to make its application just to candidates and political parties.

- North Carolina—Gov. Bickett thinks the primary law should be radically strengthened or repealed.

- Primary elections. In Alabama. Gov. Message of Charles Henderson, 1919, p 60-2 '19

- South Dakota—Gov. Norbeck believes the Richards primary law in many respects unpractical and ridiculous, but thinks it should be given a fair trial before repealing it.

- Texas—Gov. Hobby recommends the simplification of the primary election system.

- Wisconsin—Gov. Philip recommends a revision of the primary law.

- Wyoming—Gov. Carey recommends amending the primary laws in order to remove certain objectionable features.

- Arkansas—Gov. Brough recommends that the printing law be amended to allow the printing board to award contracts either for a period of two years or go out in the market as any other business firm would do.

- Michigan—Gov. Sleeper recommends a plan by which the printing of the state will be centered in some one body, so that some responsible person or board may be held accountable.

- Pennsylvania—Gov. Brumbaugh urges definite economy in state printing by the establishment of a state printing plant. He recommends a specific study of the entire subject of public printing with a view to placing it upon a more economic and serviceable basis.

- West Virginia—Gov. Cornwell recommends the repeal of the present law relating to state printing, and a new law enacted so that contracts may be let from time to time for separate jobs of work.

Governors' messages, 1919

- Idaho—Gov. Davis recommends the formation of a state commission to inquire into the subject of the administration of justice and the expediency of revising the constitution and laws relating thereto, the result to be reported to the next legislature. This should not delay, however, the immediate proposing of a constitutional provision for an enlarged appellate court.
 Missouri—Gov. Gardner urges the modernizing of court procedure.
 Texas—Gov. Hobby recommends a speedy trial of all cases, simplified procedure, the lowest possible cost to be assessed against litigants, and the abolishment of the terms of the courts, the courts to remain in session as long as there is work to be done, provision being made, however, for the vacation of the individual judges.

Governors' messages, 1919

Arizona—Gov. Campbell thinks a higher salary should be paid to the state superintendent of public health in order to obtain a man of high standing in the medical profession.

Arkansas—Gov. Brough thinks that a sanitary engineer is essential to the public health.

Delaware—Gov. Townsend recommends a revision of the health laws and administration to bring the state up to regulation and scientific standards in public health activities.

Minnesota—Gov. Burnquist urges a plan for improving the rural health situation.

Missouri—Gov. Gardner urges better laws empowering the State board of health to better protect the public health.

Oklahoma—Gov. Robertson recommends that the legislature materially increase the appropriation for the use of the State health commissioner and the proper reorganization and enlargement of his staff to the end that he may be equipped at all times to protect the health and lives of the citizens.

Pennsylvania—Gov. Brumbaugh commends the splendid work done by nurses and doctors sent by the state to Massachusetts during the influenza epidemic. In return Gov. McCall sent to Pennsylvania a large force of trained workers to assist in the campaign against influenza when it later became prevalent in the state.

Specific recommendations from the legislative messages of the several governors. Modern Hospital 12:227 Mr '19

Nevada—Gov. Boyle states that the power of the Board of health is inadequate.

New Hampshire—Gov. Bartlett recommends strengthening the public health department; also that part of the scientific analysis of the department be turned over to one or both of the state colleges.

New Mexico—Gov. Larrazolo recommends the creation of a state department of health.

Ohio—Gov. Cox recommends a radical reorganization of the health service thruout the state. The present state department cannot secure the cooperation desired for the reason that in a vast majority of towns there is no organization to be called into use. In 2000 separate health jurisdictions only about a score could be called efficient.

West Virginia—Gov. Cornwell recommends that the state health department should be greatly strengthened.

- Idaho—Gov. Davis recommends as liberal a building program as available resources will permit.
- Idaho—Gov. Davis recommends provision directly for public buildings and state highways that shall provide employment for loyal citizens.
- Indiana—Gov. Goodrich states that $40,000,000 of deferred public improvements are waiting authority to go forward.
- Kansas—Gov. Allen recommends that the institutional building should not be curtailed unnecessarily.
- Maine—Gov. Milliken recommends some elasticity of expenditure in providing for construction of public works such as large buildings, roads and bridges, in order that full advantage may be taken of market conditions as to labor and material and especially so that during the period of reconstruction these public projects may be useful in furnishing employment.
- Montana—Gov. Stewart recommends that useful and necessary public improvements be provided, as far as possible, to help solve the problem of unemployment.
- Nebraska—Gov. McKelvie thinks an early prosecution of road building and the erection of certain public buildings would absorb the labor surplus.
- Nevada—Gov. Boyle recommends that a law be enacted prohibiting the employment of any but American citizens on public works, after making exemptions to permit employment of convicts on roads, etc.
- New Jersey—Gov. Edge thinks that both state and municipal public works should be pushed immediately.
- New Mexico—Gov. Larrazolo recommends that the legislature provide for the creation of an emergency public works fund and for a commission to administer the same in time of need.

- British ministry of reconstruction is embarking upon a scheme of rural development by the construction of a large number of light railways to connect the country districts with the main railways. The cost is to be borne partly by the county and partly by the government. Upon completion the roads will be leased to the operating companies under adequate guarantees. Great quantities of material used by the British army in France will be utilized, reducing the cost of construction to about $12,000 per mile. Conferences

All of the committees interested in Red cross work in Europe are to be invited to an international conference of Red cross delegates, to be held in the city of Geneva a month after the signature of the treaty of peace. The purpose of the meeting is to report on plans for the transfer of the efforts of the Red cross organization from a war to a peace footing, notably in the direction of such activities as child welfare, public health, the fight against tuberculosis and the assistance of victims of the war. The allied governments are said to indorse the plans of this meeting.

Governors' messages, 1919

Minnesota—Gov. Burnquist urges an early bonding of the state for road improvements. Oklahoma—Gov. Robertson recommends submitting to the people as soon as possible the question of using not less than $50,000,000 of good road bonds for the construction of state highways.

Utah—Gov. Bamberger recommends a very liberal road-building program and consideration of another bond issue.

Governors' messages, 1919

Nevada—Gov. Boyle wishes a direct appropriation instead of bond issues for road improvements under the federal aid road act.

North Carolina—Gov. Bickett recommends the passage of a law compelling every county in the state where bonds have been issued to levy an annual up-keep tax of not less than three and not more than five per cent of the amount of bonds issued for road construction.

South Dakota—Gov. Norbeck recommends that a graduated automobile license tax law be passed to amortize and pay a large bond issue in ten years.

Wyoming—Gov. Carey states that the only way at present to raise money for the immediate construction of roads is by direct taxation.

Governors' messages, 1919

California—Gov. Stephens urges that returned soldiers be given work on the uncompleted links in the great highways.

Colorado—Gov. Shoup recommends careful and immediate consideration by the legislature of the subject of good roads. He further recommends a study of the plans for the nationalization of the main highways of the United States proposed by the National highways association and of the proposal of the federal government to aid the state in building roads.

Governors of Arizona, Delaware, South Carolina, South Dakota, Texas, Vermont and Wyoming recommend the construction of good state roads.

Illinois—Gov. Lowden recommends the construction of good roads in accordance with the amount authorized for the purpose, by the people.

Indiana—Gov. Goodrich recommends the passing of a comprehensive highway law.

Kansas—Gov. Allen indorses the program of road improvements of the Kansas good roads association.

Michigan—Gov. Sleeper states that the roads constructed as military measures may be regarded as permanent investments.

Missouri—Gov. Gardner suggests that the road committees hold joint sessions with other interested organizations and devise some plan for road improvements and submit it to the people at a special election.

New Hampshire—Gov. Bartlett recommends that the state spend enough of its $800,000 of annual road money to provide free roads for its people.

New Jersey—Gov. Edge urges public road improvement as a partial solution of the labor problem.

New Mexico—Gov. Larrazolo recommends that a law be passed directing that all moneys derived from motor vehicle license fees be turned into the state treasury and placed to the credit of the state road fund; that the laws of the state relating to motor vehicles be made to conform with the laws of other states.

Ohio—Gov. Cox urges the cooperation of local subdivisions of government in the matter of making the year 1919 one of commendable progress in the building of good roads.

Rhode Island—Gov. Beekman recommends the adoption of a comprehensive program of road-building and improvement and a liberal appropriation to carry it on.

Washington (state)—Gov. Lister recommends that the money set aside, be re-appropriated for the construction of highways. He also discusses at length the bonding plan for road improvements.

Patrol systemGovernors' messages, 1919

Pennsylvania—Gov. Brumbaugh states that the patrol system inaugurated upon many highways has proved wholly satisfactory; the roads are always in first class condition and the cost is reasonable; the state highways have been kept free from snow, and especially on the Lincoln highway, large sums of money were expended to keep it open to army and commercial trucks.

Governors' messages, 1919

Governors of North Dakota, South Dakota and Texas recommend the consolidation of rural schools.

Oklahoma—Gov. Robertson recommends an increase in appropriation for building purposes and maintenance of consolidated rural schools.

Governors' messages, 1919

Indiana—Gov. Goodrich recommends that consideration be given to rural school problems.

Kansas—Gov. Allen recommends measures to equalize the educational opportunities so far as possible of rural and city children.

Missouri—Gov. Gardner says that the recent school survey shows that the country schools are particularly weak. He suggests that special state aid be given to weak districts.

Nebraska—Gov. McKelvie urges that the rural schools be placed upon a basis of equal service with the balance of the educational system.

South Dakota—Gov. Norbeck recommends the enactment of laws that will provide for proper supervision of all the schools.

Texas—Gov. Hobby recommends the appropriation of one million dollars for each of the two coming years for an endowment to rural schools.

Vermont—Gov. Graham believes in educating a child in the school nearest its home but only when a school of respectable size can be maintained; otherwise, the schools should be consolidated.

Governors' messages, 1919

- Arizona—Gov. Campbell recommends that careful consideration be given to the report of the commission appointed for the revision and compilation of school laws of the state.
- Arkansas—Gov. Brough recommends a system of county superintendency for every county.
- Colorado—Gov. Gunter urges that serious attention be given to the new school code.
- Kansas—Gov. Allen approves the legislative program of the state teachers' association. It contains a provision for the taking of the office of state superintendent out of politics and for improving the statutes under which the county superintendent of schools is chosen.
- Massachusetts—Gov. Coolidge recommends that appropriations be made to re-establish the public schools of the state especially in rural districts.
- New Jersey—Gov. Edge recommends that the practical recommendations of the legislative committee, that has been for some time investigating the school laws, be given serious consideration.

struction of property, sabotage and other unlawful acts or methods, as the means of accomplishing or effecting industrial or political ends or revolutions.

Legislation, Proposed

New South Wales—Sedition bill is directed against disloyalists and sedition mongers, but does not apply to strike leaders, or political leaders, or leaders of different classes in the community, in any action that may be taken by them against any other classes. Main object of the bill is to check those who by conduct or speech make it difficult for the state to do its part in carrying on the war. '18

Governors' messages, 1919

- Governors of Connecticut, Michigan, Missouri, Nebraska recommend effective legislation to encourage the sheep industry.
- Maine—Gov. Milliken recommends that the law regarding the licensing of dogs be strictly enforced and asks the legislature to consider more adequate protection to sheep. He also recommends that the program of state and federal governments against the ravages of disease be continued and enlarged.
- North Carolina—Gov. Bickett recommends that a law be enacted forbidding owners of dogs to allow them to run at large at night.
- Oklahoma—Gov. Robertson recommends the passage of a comprehensive dog law, in order to protect the sheep industry, and the inclusion in such a law of provision for levying a license tax.
- Wyoming—Gov. Carey recommends a law making it a crime to deliberately abandon herds of sheep.

Governors' messages, 1919

Arkansas—Gov. Brough reports the finances of the state in a satisfactory condition.

Colorado—Gov. Shoup warns the legislature against over appropriation, which he considers wrong in principle and pernicious in practice.

Connecticut—Gov. Holcomb recommends that $5,000,000 be transferred from the civil list fund to the sinking fund.

Delaware—Gov. Townsend states that at the end of the fiscal year, Jan. 13, 1919, there was an approximate balance of $475,000 in the general fund.

Financial tables In Alabama. Gov. Message of Charles Henderson, 1919, p 16-35 '19

Illinois—Gov. Lowden reports that the financial condition of the state is good; that bills are paid promptly and the credit of the state greatly improved, enabling the state to secure better prices upon commodities it must purchase.

Indiana—Gov. Goodrich recommends the enactment of a law to legalize funds expended to meet war emergencies.

Maine—Gov. Milliken urges the most rigid and careful economy in appropriations, in view of the fact that the people have been heavily burdened by the financial demands of the war. He recommends a careful study of possible reductions in the cost and in the machinery of legislation, and that no private or special legislation be considered in cases where the purpose can be accomplished under the general law.

Massachusetts—Gov. Coolidge asks that true economy be exercised by the legislature.

Missouri—Gov. Gardner announces that the floating indebtedness of the state has been liquidated in full. The revenue estimate for 1919-20 is $18,000,000, from which must be deducted $6,000,000 for the public schools.

New Jersey—Gov. Edge states that the state has a free balance in the treasury of over $3,000,000.

New York (state)—Gov. Smith includes with his message a statement summarizing the transactions of the state treasury for the year ended June 30, 1919, also the condition of the sinking fund and the state debt.

Oregon—Gov. Withycombe suggests the advisability of establishing the end of the fiscal year at July 1 rather than January 1, thus corresponding with the business of the federal government.

Pennsylvania—Gov. Sproul states that Pennsylvania has been paying an extremely large share of federal taxes, and that much attention must be given to devising some means for raising revenue for the needs of the state itself.

South Carolina—Gov. Manning states that the credit of the state stands high, as is attested by the fact that money for the current expenses of the state government has been borrowed at a lower rate of interest than other states have obtained.

Tennessee—Gov. Rye devotes his entire message to a discussion of the finances of the state.

Utah—Gov. Bamberger states that by April 1, 1919 the state will have made up a deficit of some $400,000 floating indebtedness, besides redeeming the state bond issue of 1898 in the sum of $150,000.

Vermont—Gov. Clement deplores the loss of income from federal control of public utilities, income taxes, and loss of state tax on deposits in savings banks and trust companies.

West Virginia—Gov. Cornwell states that the conditions of the state finances are very satisfactory.

Wisconsin—Gov. Phillip discusses the finances of the state and recommends reasonable economy in expenditures and that the legislature keep within its income.

Governors' messages, 1919

California—Gov. Stephens recommends the revising of a uniform system of taxation and the co-relating of state and national tax levies and collections.

Colorado—Gov. Gunter thinks the legislature should not hesitate to raise the tax levy to four mills if it seems necessary in order to meet the state's obligations.

Colorado—Gov. Shoup recommends careful investigation of the subject of taxation, in order to determine whether the tax burden can be more justly and equitably distributed.

Idaho—Gov. Davis recommends that the investigational duties of the former tax commission be imposed upon an officer or department directly responsible to the chief executive, as intelligent study and the collation of accurate data are the first requisites for intelligent legislation on the subject of taxation.

Indiana—Gov. Goodrich thinks the tax laws should be amended.

Kansas—Gov. Allen recommends that attention be given to a revision of the tax system.

Maine—Gov. Milliken recommends a drastic listing bill requiring under heavy penalty that all personal property be listed in an inventory filed under oath to the assessors for the purpose of taxation.

Montana—Gov. Stewart recommends that matters of taxation, revenue and expenditures be given most careful consideration by the assembly, this being particularly important in view of the fact that liquor license revenues are now lost to the state.

Nevada—Gov. Boyle invites attention to needed reform in the organic law relating to taxation.

New Hampshire—Gov. Bartlett discusses ways and means of raising additional revenue by taxation.

New Hampshire—Gov. Bartlett recommends that the legislature carefully consider what the people want and then discover the best methods of securing the necessary money.

North Carolina—Gov. Bickett thinks certain constitutional amendments necessary in order to give the state a better permanent system of taxation; these amendments should be able to raise all revenues for state purposes without resorting to any property tax.

Ohio—Gov. Cox states that a pressing problem before the legislature is that of providing financial relief to counties, municipalities and school districts, and authorizing the means of restoring to the state treasury the revenues which will be lost thru the prohibition amendment to the constitution.

Oregon—Gov. Withycombe is convinced that the six per cent tax limitation is wrong in principle, as it restricts legitimate state activities in periods of unusual emergencies. Taxation should be flexible and capable of severe restriction where an increased fund is not needed.

Pennsylvania—Gov. Sproul recommends, as a means of increasing the revenue, that the auditor general be authorized to collect the personal property tax, with the provision that one-half belong to the state, the other half to the counties.

South Carolina—Gov. Manning recommends increasing the taxes, in view of the fact that the tax rate of the state is very low.

Governors' messages, 1919

Connecticut—Gov. Holcomb recommends that the Public utilities commission make a survey of all undeveloped water supply.

New York (state)—Gov. Smith recommends the enactment of practical legislation for the better regulation of the flow of the rivers by the construction of storage reservoirs.

Pennsylvania—Gov. Brumbaugh states that the Water supply commission has issued in pamphlets a complete survey of the water resources of the state, has formulated a comprehensive plan for the control and utilization of the streams of Pennsylvania and has planned a scientific treatment of all impounded waters to the end that no bursting dams shall spread disaster in any place. He recommends the extension of the topographical surveys and that sufficient funds be made available for the work.

Governors' messages, 1919

Delaware—Gov. Townsend recommends granting the franchise to the women of the state. Idaho—Gov. Davis hopes the day is not far distant when woman suffrage will be a part of the national constitution as it is part of the state constitution.

Indiana—Gov. Goodrich thinks that if a valid woman suffrage law can be passed it should be enacted.

Maine—Gov. Milliken recommends that the legislature take whatever action is necessary to hasten the adoption of equal suffrage in state and nation.

Michigan—Gov. Sleeper urges the women of the state to take their responsibilities of citizenship seriously and to make a conscientious use of the power put into their hands thru the vote.

New Mexico—Gov. Larrazolo recommends that an amendment to the state constitution be passed, allowing women the right of suffrage on an equality with men.

Oklahoma—Gov. Robertson recommends legislation making the recently adopted constitutional amendment granting woman suffrage effective.

Pennsylvania—Gov. Sproul hopes that the state will pass an amendment providing for woman suffrage, if Congress fails to act favorably on the matter.

Texas—Gov. Hobby recommends a constitutional amendment providing for woman suffrage.

Legislation

French chamber of deputies adopted the bill granting women the right to vote in all elections for members of communal and departmental assemblies, May 20, 1919.

Indiana, Maine, Minnesota, Vermont, Missouri, Wisconsin, Tennessee, and Iowa have granted presidential suffrage to women. '19

England, Ireland, Scotland, Wales, Canada, Austria, Germany, Hungary, Czechoslovakia and Poland granted their women the vote in 1918, while in 1919, Sweden and Holland are both committed to the reform of their governments. Nineteen foreign countries are on the suffrage roster, while fifteen of the United States have full suffrage. Illinois, North Dakota and Nebraska have given women presidential and municipal suffrage; Texas and Arkansas have given primary suffrage; Indiana and Rhode Island have given presidential suffrage only; Ohio and Florida have given municipal suffrage in charter cities and twelve others have given minor forms of suffrage, school or tax or both.

Fifteen states, Arizona, California, Colorado, Idaho, Kansas, Michigan, Montana, Nevada, New York, Oklahoma, Oregon, South Dakota, Utah, Washington, Wyoming, with 4,303,288 women over 21, have full suffrage and will cast 137 electoral votes. Four states, Illinois, Nebraska, North Dakota and Rhode Island, have 2,358,996 women who have partial suffrage, and will cast 47 electoral votes. Arkansas and Texas which permit 1,354,680 women to vote at the primaries, have 29 electoral votes. N '18

- Arizona—Gov. Campbell recommends the appointment of a commission to report on a workmen's compensation law.
- Arkansas—Gov. Brough recommends the enactment of a workmen's compensation act.
- Colorado—Gov. Gunter proposes to appoint a committee representing the employer and the employee for the purpose of examining the workmen's compensation laws, and to make suggestions concerning their improvement.

Colorado—Gov. Shoup recommends that the workmen's compensation law be amended, simplifying the procedure, making mandatory the prompt payment of just claims, reducing the waiting period, and reasonably increasing the maximum weekly compensation.

Delaware—Gov. Townsend recommends that the waiting time be reduced from fourteen days to seven, and that the fee of $25 allowed for medical service for an injured employee be increased to a sum commensurate with the case.

Idaho—Gov. Davis states that he does not consider the schedule of compensation in the workmen's compensation law in many instances as sufficiently adequate to protect the workmen and recommends that it be increased.

Illinois—Gov. Lowden reports that the workmen's compensation law has worked well, but needs to be changed so as to reduce the number of cases in which it is necessary to employ either counsel or expert advice.

Kansas—Gov. Allen urges that constructive attention be given to the entire subject of a workmen's compensation act.

Maine—Gov. Milliken recommends that the workmen's compensation law be revised to increase the maximum limit of weekly compensation by at least fifty per cent, the compensation to be made two-thirds instead of one-half the average weekly wage, that the waiting period be reduced from fourteen days to seven days, or else reduced on a sliding scale, and that the provision for payment of doctors', nurses', and hospital fees be made more liberal.

Michigan—Gov. Sleeper recommends that the workmen's compensation law be amended so as to reduce the waiting period, the period of suspended payment, to extend the period of medical aid, to increase the maximum and minimum amounts of compensation, to increase the percentage of wage to be paid as compensation, and to change some of the administrative features of the act.

Minnesota—Gov. Burnquist urges that employers shall be compelled to insure in companies approved and regulated by state authority; is in favor of a system that will not destroy the free and fair exercise of individual initiative in any enterprise that can be as well or better conducted by private management.

Missouri—Gov. Gardner recommends the enactment of a workmen's compensation law.

Nebraska—Gov. McKelvie recommends improvement in the workmen's compensation act.

New Jersey—Gov. Edge considers the workmen's compensation law inadequate and recommends improvement.

New York (state)—Gov. Smith recommends amending the workmen's compensation law to the end that occupational diseases and injuries may be subject to its provisions. He also reports that he is making an investigation to determine the cost of workmen's compensation to the industries, as compared with the amount actually received by injured workmen and their dependents.

Ohio—Gov. Cox discusses at some length the benefits of the Ohio workmen's compensation act.

Oregon—Gov. Withycombe says it has been recommended officially by the Industrial accident commission that the law be changed so that the state be required to contribute only enough to defray the expenses of operating the commission. The Commission is flourishing and it would be advisable to suspend state aid to the industrial accident fund temporarily, thus saving the state about $850,000.

South Dakota—Gov. Norbeck recommends that the workmen's compensation benefits be enlarged.

Vermont—Gov. Clement thinks there should be provision for carrying risks under the law by means of voluntary associations, if the schedules of compensation are to be increased.

 Wyoming—Gov. Carey recommends amending the workmen's compensation act so as to make the amounts allowed more adequate in certain cases.
